

Mrs. Strive's 52-Week Adventure Vocabulary & Speed Reading Curriculum

A full-year Strive Academy fluency and vocabulary curriculum using retrieval practice, daily repeated speed reads, integrated learning, and adventure-based storytelling inspired by the STRIVE™ learning protocol.

Week 1

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Journey	a long trip or adventure
Efficient	working well without waste
Ability	a skill or talent
Observe	to watch carefully

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the ancient observatory. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to journey clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a efficient energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their ability to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and observe leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 2

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Region	an area of land
Boundary	a border or edge
Journey	a long trip or adventure
Creative	able to make new ideas

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the lost desert city. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to solve the mystery of disappearing supplies. During the mission, the students had to region strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an boundary symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their journey thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost creative. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 3

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Ancient	very old or from long ago
Valuable	worth a lot or important
Ability	a skill or talent
Capture	to catch or take control

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the Frozen Sky Mountains. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to protect an ancient artifact. During the mission, the students had to ancient strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an valuable symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their ability thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost capture. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 4

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Conclude	to decide after thinking
Concentrate	to focus attention
Companion	a close friend or helper
Capture	to catch or take control

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the storm islands. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to conclude clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a concentrate energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their companion to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and capture leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 5

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Fragile	easily broken
Efficient	working well without waste
Construct	to build something
Ability	a skill or talent

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the Crystal Canyon. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to solve the mystery of disappearing supplies. During the mission, the students had to fragile strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an efficient symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their construct thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost ability. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 6

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Fragile	easily broken
Dangerous	able to cause harm
Mystery	something difficult to explain
Concentrate	to focus attention

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the Whispering Forest. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to protect an ancient artifact. During the mission, the students had to fragile strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an dangerous symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their mystery thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost concentrate. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 7

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Resource	something useful that helps people
Region	an area of land
Observe	to watch carefully
Creative	able to make new ideas

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the floating ruins. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to track unusual weather signals. During the mission, the students had to resource strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an region symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their observe thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost creative. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 8

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Efficient	working well without waste
Investigate	to search carefully for answers
Delicate	easily damaged
Creative	able to make new ideas

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the lost desert city. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to track unusual weather signals. During the mission, the students had to efficient strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an investigate symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their delicate thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost creative. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 9

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Boundary	a border or edge
Fragile	easily broken
Companion	a close friend or helper
Capture	to catch or take control

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the lost desert city. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to boundary clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a fragile energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their companion to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and capture leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 10

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Efficient	working well without waste
Conclude	to decide after thinking
Dangerous	able to cause harm
Fragile	easily broken

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the floating ruins. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to efficient clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a conclude energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their dangerous to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and fragile leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 11

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Conclude	to decide after thinking
Climate	usual weather in a place
Dangerous	able to cause harm
Astonish	to surprise greatly

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the Frozen Sky Mountains. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to decode forgotten messages. During the mission, the students had to conclude strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an climate symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their dangerous thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost astonish. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 12

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Efficient	working well without waste
Predict	to say what may happen
Region	an area of land
Concentrate	to focus attention

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the shadow caves. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to solve the mystery of disappearing supplies. During the mission, the students had to efficient strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an predict symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their region thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost concentrate. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 13

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Efficient	working well without waste
Fragile	easily broken
Dangerous	able to cause harm
Climate	usual weather in a place

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the Crystal Canyon. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to efficient clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a fragile energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their dangerous to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and climate leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 14

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Mystery	something difficult to explain
Ancient	very old or from long ago
Companion	a close friend or helper
Ability	a skill or talent

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the shadow caves. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to mystery clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a ancient energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their companion to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and ability leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 15

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Fragile	easily broken
Mystery	something difficult to explain
Predict	to say what may happen
Delicate	easily damaged

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the Whispering Forest. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to protect an ancient artifact. During the mission, the students had to fragile strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an mystery symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their predict thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost delicate. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 16

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Fragile	easily broken
Ancient	very old or from long ago
Explore	to travel and discover
Ability	a skill or talent

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the Crystal Canyon. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to fragile clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a ancient energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their explore to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and ability leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 17

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Efficient	working well without waste
Astonish	to surprise greatly
Companion	a close friend or helper
Predict	to say what may happen

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the shadow caves. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to efficient clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a astonish energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their companion to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and predict leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 18

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Boundary	a border or edge
Valuable	worth a lot or important
Capture	to catch or take control
Survive	to stay alive during danger

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the floating ruins. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to boundary clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a valuable energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their capture to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and survive leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 19

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Ability	a skill or talent
Capture	to catch or take control
Journey	a long trip or adventure
Explore	to travel and discover

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the storm islands. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to rescue stranded explorers. During the mission, the students had to ability strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an capture symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their journey thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost explore. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 20

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Investigate	to search carefully for answers
Survive	to stay alive during danger
Fragile	easily broken
Efficient	working well without waste

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the hidden jungle temple. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to investigate clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a survive energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their fragile to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and efficient leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 21

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Capture	to catch or take control
Mystery	something difficult to explain
Climate	usual weather in a place
Creative	able to make new ideas

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the storm islands. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to rescue stranded explorers. During the mission, the students had to capture strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an mystery symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their climate thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost creative. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 22

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Survive	to stay alive during danger
Fragile	easily broken
Resource	something useful that helps people
Explore	to travel and discover

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the shadow caves. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to recover a missing map. During the mission, the students had to survive strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an fragile symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their resource thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost explore. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 23

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Survive	to stay alive during danger
Concentrate	to focus attention
Mystery	something difficult to explain
Region	an area of land

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the Frozen Sky Mountains. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to protect an ancient artifact. During the mission, the students had to survive strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an concentrate symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their mystery thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost region. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 24

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Mystery	something difficult to explain
Ability	a skill or talent
Region	an area of land
Construct	to build something

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the shadow caves. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to mystery clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a ability energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their region to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and construct leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 25

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Astonish	to surprise greatly
Companion	a close friend or helper
Predict	to say what may happen
Resource	something useful that helps people

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the shadow caves. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to astonish clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a companion energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their predict to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and resource leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 26

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Conclude	to decide after thinking
Survive	to stay alive during danger
Concentrate	to focus attention
Mystery	something difficult to explain

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the hidden jungle temple. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to conclude clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a survive energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their concentrate to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and mystery leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 27

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Capture	to catch or take control
Companion	a close friend or helper
Ancient	very old or from long ago
Conclude	to decide after thinking

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the Whispering Forest. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to capture clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a companion energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their ancient to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and conclude leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 28

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Dangerous	able to cause harm
Resource	something useful that helps people
Explore	to travel and discover
Predict	to say what may happen

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the underground lava tunnels. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to dangerous clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a resource energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their explore to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and predict leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 29

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Astonish	to surprise greatly
Boundary	a border or edge
Creative	able to make new ideas
Ancient	very old or from long ago

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the hidden jungle temple. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to recover a missing map. During the mission, the students had to astonish strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an boundary symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their creative thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost ancient. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 30

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Survive	to stay alive during danger
Construct	to build something
Ancient	very old or from long ago
Ability	a skill or talent

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the ancient observatory. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to survive clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a construct energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their ancient to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and ability leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 31

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Dangerous	able to cause harm
Concentrate	to focus attention
Ancient	very old or from long ago
Ability	a skill or talent

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the floating ruins. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to dangerous clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a concentrate energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their ancient to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and ability leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 32

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Resource	something useful that helps people
Capture	to catch or take control
Astonish	to surprise greatly
Concentrate	to focus attention

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the Whispering Forest. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to resource clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a capture energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their astonish to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and concentrate leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 33

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Observe	to watch carefully
Capture	to catch or take control
Boundary	a border or edge
Creative	able to make new ideas

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the Crystal Canyon. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to solve the mystery of disappearing supplies. During the mission, the students had to observe strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an capture symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their boundary thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost creative. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 34

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Capture	to catch or take control
Climate	usual weather in a place
Astonish	to surprise greatly
Mystery	something difficult to explain

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the Crystal Canyon. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to rescue stranded explorers. During the mission, the students had to capture strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an climate symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their astonish thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost mystery. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 35

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Investigate	to search carefully for answers
Capture	to catch or take control
Ancient	very old or from long ago
Mystery	something difficult to explain

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the hidden jungle temple. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to solve the mystery of disappearing supplies. During the mission, the students had to investigate strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an capture symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their ancient thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost mystery. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 36

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Observe	to watch carefully
Concentrate	to focus attention
Mystery	something difficult to explain
Astonish	to surprise greatly

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the Crystal Canyon. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to observe clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a concentrate energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their mystery to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and astonish leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 37

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Observe	to watch carefully
Boundary	a border or edge
Construct	to build something
Concentrate	to focus attention

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the Crystal Canyon. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to repair the academy beacon. During the mission, the students had to observe strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an boundary symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their construct thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost concentrate. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 38

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Concentrate	to focus attention
Creative	able to make new ideas
Climate	usual weather in a place
Astonish	to surprise greatly

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the ancient observatory. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to concentrate clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a creative energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their climate to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and astonish leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 39

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Investigate	to search carefully for answers
Region	an area of land
Ancient	very old or from long ago
Valuable	worth a lot or important

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the floating ruins. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to rescue stranded explorers. During the mission, the students had to investigate strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an region symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their ancient thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost valuable. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 40

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Valuable	worth a lot or important
Construct	to build something
Boundary	a border or edge
Delicate	easily damaged

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the shadow caves. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to valuable clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a construct energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their boundary to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and delicate leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 41

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Creative	able to make new ideas
Region	an area of land
Companion	a close friend or helper
Capture	to catch or take control

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the storm islands. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to discover a lost energy source. During the mission, the students had to creative strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an region symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their companion thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost capture. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 42

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Ability	a skill or talent
Valuable	worth a lot or important
Delicate	easily damaged
Fragile	easily broken

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the Crystal Canyon. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to ability clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a valuable energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their delicate to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and fragile leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 43

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Valuable	worth a lot or important
Capture	to catch or take control
Observe	to watch carefully
Region	an area of land

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the Crystal Canyon. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to rescue stranded explorers. During the mission, the students had to valuable strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an capture symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their observe thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost region. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 44

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Construct	to build something
Boundary	a border or edge
Investigate	to search carefully for answers
Mystery	something difficult to explain

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the underground lava tunnels. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to construct clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a boundary energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their investigate to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and mystery leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 45

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Ancient	very old or from long ago
Boundary	a border or edge
Valuable	worth a lot or important
Efficient	working well without waste

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the storm islands. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to rescue stranded explorers. During the mission, the students had to ancient strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an boundary symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their valuable thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost efficient. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 46

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Ability	a skill or talent
Region	an area of land
Mystery	something difficult to explain
Climate	usual weather in a place

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the Crystal Canyon. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to ability clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a region energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their mystery to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and climate leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 47

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Boundary	a border or edge
Efficient	working well without waste
Resource	something useful that helps people
Construct	to build something

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the Frozen Sky Mountains. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to boundary clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a efficient energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their resource to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and construct leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 48

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Explore	to travel and discover
Predict	to say what may happen
Construct	to build something
Capture	to catch or take control

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

The morning mission briefing at Strive Academy sent the cadets deep into the the floating ruins. Mrs. Strive explained that the students would need to explore clues left behind by an old expedition team. Along the trail, the class crossed rivers, climbed cliffs, and protected a predict energy crystal from powerful winds. Every cadet depended on their construct to solve problems before sunset. As darkness covered the valley, the students finally uncovered the truth behind the strange signals. Mrs. Strive smiled proudly as the cadets used their knowledge and capture leadership skills to guide the entire team safely back to the academy.

Week 49

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Astonish	to surprise greatly
Journey	a long trip or adventure
Survive	to stay alive during danger
Delicate	easily damaged

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the underground lava tunnels. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to solve the mystery of disappearing supplies. During the mission, the students had to astonish strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an journey symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their survive thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost delicate. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 50

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Creative	able to make new ideas
Fragile	easily broken
Construct	to build something
Efficient	working well without waste

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the storm islands. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to protect an ancient artifact. During the mission, the students had to creative strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an fragile symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their construct thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost efficient. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 51

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Dangerous	able to cause harm
Companion	a close friend or helper
Journey	a long trip or adventure
Creative	able to make new ideas

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the Frozen Sky Mountains. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to repair the academy beacon. During the mission, the students had to dangerous strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an companion symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their journey thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost creative. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.

Week 52

Vocabulary Words & Definitions

Word	Definition
Dangerous	able to cause harm
Ancient	very old or from long ago
Climate	usual weather in a place
Predict	to say what may happen

Weekly Adventure Speed Read

Mrs. Strive adjusted her explorer goggles as the academy shuttle landed near the the floating ruins. The fourth-grade cadets were sent to discover a lost energy source. During the mission, the students had to dangerous strange markings carved into the stone walls. One student noticed an ancient symbol hidden beneath the dust while another carefully mapped the area. Suddenly, the tunnel lights flickered, and the cadets realized the mystery was larger than they expected. Mrs. Strive reminded everyone to stay calm and work together. Using their climate thinking skills, the team solved a puzzle protecting a hidden chamber filled with lost predict. By the end of the adventure, the cadets learned that teamwork, courage, and curiosity were more powerful than fear.